(ii) The Executive shall be entitled to participate in or receive benefits under any employee benefit plan or arrangement made available by the Company in the future to its comparably situated executives and key management employees, subject to and on a basis consistent with the terms, conditions and overall administration of such plans and arrangements. Nothing paid to the Executive under any plan or arrangement presently in effect or made available in the future shall be deemed to be in lieu of the salary payable to the Executive pursuant to Section 5(a). The Executive shall also be entitled to all paid holidays and personal days given by the Company to its executives.

6. Offices. Subject to Sections 3 and 4, the Executive agrees to serve without additional compensation, if elected or appointed thereto, as a director of the Company and any of its Affiliates and in one or more executive offices of any of the Company's Affiliates.

7. Termination of Employment. The Executive's employment hereunder may be terminated without any breach of this Agreement only upon the following circumstances:

(a) Death. The Executive's employment hereunder shall automatically terminate upon his death.

(b) Disability. If, as a result of the Executive's incapacity due to physical or mental illness as determined by the Company in its sole discretion, the Executive shall have been absent from his duties hereunder on a full-time basis for a period of six consecutive months, and within 30 days after written Notice of Termination of Employment is given (which may occur before or after the end of such six month period) shall not have returned to the performance of his duties hereunder on a full-time basis, the Company may immediately terminate the Executive's employment hereunder.

(c) Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause by, at any time at its election within six months after the Company shall obtain knowledge of the grounds for termination, giving the Executive notice of its intention to terminate the Executive for Cause and stating the date of Termination of Employment and the grounds for termination.

(d) Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason upon 30 days' prior written notice to the Company; provided, however, that prior to a Change in Control, if the Company corrects the matter that has given rise to the Good Reason event, and makes the Executive whole for any loss to the Executive resulting from such Good Reason event, the Executive may not so terminate his employment.

(e) Without Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause upon 30 days' prior written notice to the Executive.

(f) Without Good Reason. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder without Good Reason upon 30 days' prior written notice to the Company.

For purposes of this Agreement, a "Notice of Termination of Employment" shall mean a notice which shall indicate the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon and shall set forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for Termination of Employment under the provision so indicated. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if the Company becomes obligated to make any payment to the Executive pursuant to the terms hereof, then this Agreement shall remain in effect until all of the Company's obligations hereunder are fulfilled.

8. Benefits Upon Termination of Employment

(a) Death. In the event of the Executive's Termination of Employment with the Control Group due to his death, the Company shall pay any amounts due to the Executive under Section 5 through the date of his death in accordance with the payment provisions of Section 5 and Section 13.

(b) Disability. In the event of the Executive's Termination of Employment with the Control Group under Section 7(b), the Company shall pay any amounts due to the Executive under Section 5 through the Termination Date in accordance with the payment provisions of Section 5 and shall have no other obligation to the Executive or his dependents other than amounts due, if any, under the Company's long-term disability plan, and any benefits offered by the Company under its then policy to employees who become disabled while employed by the Company.

(c) Cause. In the event the Executive's employment with the Control Group is terminated for Cause, the Company shall pay any amounts due to the Executive under Section 5 through the Termination Date in accordance with the payment provisions of Section 5 and shall have no other obligation to the Executive or his dependents other than any amounts, if any, due to Executive under its then existing policies to employees whose employment is terminated for Cause or under the specific terms of any welfare, pension, fringe benefit or incentive plan. Other than as provided in the preceding sentence, in the event the Executive's employment is terminated for Cause, he shall not be entitled to the benefits and payments provided under Section 8(g) below.

(d) Without Cause or For Good Reason. In the event the Executive's employment with the Control Group is terminated by the Company without Cause, or the Executive terminates employment with the Control Group within 60 days after the occurrence of a Good Reason event with regard to the Executive, the Company shall pay any amounts due to the Executive under Section 5 through the Termination Date in accordance with the payment provisions of Section 5 and shall pay the Executive a Severance Benefit as provided in Section 8(f) below.

(e) Following a Change in Control. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if, within 24 months following a Change in Control, the Executive's employment with the Control Group is terminated without Cause or if the Executive terminates employment with the Control Group within sixty (60) days after the occurrence of a Good Reason event with regard to the Executive, (i) the Executive shall receive his Severance Benefit as provided in Section 8(f) below and (ii) the restrictions on Competition and no-hire contained in Sections 9(a)(i) and 9(b), respectively, shall not apply.

(f) Timing and Form of Payment. The Executive shall receive payment of his Severance Benefit in a lump sum payment within 10 days following the six-month anniversary of the Termination Date, provided that the Executive has signed and returned to the Company the release provided for in Section 12 in a form acceptable to the Company (the "Release"). The Release shall be provided to the Executive within seven (7) days following the Termination Date. In order to receive his Severance Benefit, the Executive will be required to sign the Release within twenty-one (21) or forty-five (45) days after the date it is provided to him, whichever is applicable under applicable law, and not revoke the Release within the seven (7) day period following the date the Executive signs the Release. If the Company has not received from the Executive an effective Release as of the six-month anniversary of the Termination Date, no Severance Benefit shall be paid to the Executive.

(g) (i) Except as set forth below and other than in cases where the Executive's employment with the Control Group is terminated pursuant to Sections 7(a), 7(b), 7(c) or 7(f), the Company shall provide the Executive with post-termination medical and dental benefits during the Severance Period in a manner intended to satisfy the requirements of Code Sections 105(h) and 409A as follows: (i) immediately following the Termination Date, the Executive will be entitled to elect such continuation coverage pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended ("COBRA"), subject to the terms and conditions of the Company's medical and dental benefit plans and the provisions of COBRA; (ii) if the Executive elects COBRA continuation coverage, he will pay the applicable COBRA premiums during the period that his medical and dental benefits are continued pursuant to COBRA; and (iii) for each month during Severance Period, but not exceeding 18 months, the Company will pay to the Executive, on a monthly basis, the difference in the amount of COBRA premiums he pays and the amount the Executive would have paid for such medical and dental coverage as an active employee for such month.

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Executive elects Retirement, the Company shall provide the Executive with post-termination medical and dental benefits in a manner intended to satisfy the requirements of Code Sections

105(h) and 409A such that the Executive shall be entitled to medical and dental insurance benefits substantially the same as those to which senior executives of the Company are entitled under the medical and dental plans of the Company applicable to actively employed senior executives, less any benefits Executive or his or her covered dependents may receive from Medicare. The Executive shall be responsible for the payment of the insurance premiums applicable to actively employed senior executives, including any subsequent increases in such premiums. Such medical and dental insurance coverage shall cease in the event the Executive engages in Competition during the one-year period following his Retirement or becomes a participant in a new employer's medical and dental plan. In order to be entitled to the benefits described in this Section 8(g)(ii), the Executive, his spouse, and other covered dependents, as applicable, must have been enrolled at the time of the Executive's Retirement in the medical and/or dental insurance plan applicable to actively employed senior executives, and the Executive, his spouse and other covered dependents, as applicable, are, as soon as eligible, enrolled in Medicare, including Part B.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything else herein, the Executive shall not be entitled to any benefits during the Severance Period other than the benefits provided in Section 8 and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Executive specifically shall not be entitled to continue to participate in any group disability or voluntary accidental death or dismemberment insurance plan he participated in prior to his Termination Date. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Executive shall not accrue additional benefits under any pension plan of the Company or an Affiliate (whether or not qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code) during the Severance Period, provided, however, that to the extent provided for under any applicable plan, the amount of any Severance Benefit may be included in the Executive's earnings for purposes of calculating the Executive's benefit under the Foot Locker Retirement Plan, the Foot Locker Excess Cash Balance Plan, and the Foot Locker 401(k) Plan.

(h) In the event of the Executive's death after becoming eligible for the Severance Benefit described in Section 8(f) and prior to payment of such amount, such Severance Benefit shall be paid to the Executive's Beneficiary.

(i) Notwithstanding anything else herein, to the extent the Executive would be subject to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code on the amounts in Section 8(f) and such other amounts or benefits he received from the Company and its Affiliates required to be included in the calculation of parachute payments for purposes of Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code, the amounts provided under this Agreement shall be automatically reduced to an amount one dollar less than that which, when combined with such other amounts and benefits required to be so included, would subject the Executive to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code if, and only if, the reduced amount received by the Executive on a net after-tax basis after taking into account federal, state and local income and social security taxes at the maximum marginal rates would be greater than the unreduced amount to be received by the Executive on a net after-tax basis after taking into account federal, state and local income and social security taxes at the maximum marginal rates minus the excise tax payable under Section 4999 of the Code on such amount and the other amounts and benefits received by the Executive and required to be included in the calculation of a parachute payment for purposes of Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code.

9. Non-Competition and Confidentiality.

(a) (i) The Executive agrees that he shall not engage in Competition during the Non-Competition Period, subject to the Company's option to waive all or any portion of the Non-Competition Period, as more specifically provided for in the following paragraph.

(ii) As additional consideration for the covenant not to compete during the Non-Competition Period described above, the Company shall pay the Executive, on a monthly basis, the sum of 25 percent of the Executive's monthly Salary, less the amount of the Executive's "Monthly Severance Benefit," if any. This additional consideration shall be payable for the two (2) year period commencing on the Termination Date and shall be payable on the first day of each month. For purposes of this provision, the "Monthly Severance Benefit" shall be equal to the Severance Benefit divided by the number of months in the Severance Period. The Company has the option, for any reason, to elect to waive all or any portion of the two (2) year period of Non-Competition commencing on the Termination Date, by giving the Executive written notice of such election not later than thirty (30) days following the Termination Date. In that event, the Company shall not be obligated to pay the Executive under this paragraph for any months as to which the covenant not to compete has been waived. The Company may discontinue payments being made pursuant to this paragraph at any time during the Non-Competition Period that (i) Executive is engaged in full-time employment that, in the Company's opinion, does not violate the provisions of Section 9(a)(i) hereof, or (ii) Executive violates the provisions of Section 9(a)(i) hereof.

(b) The Executive acknowledges that, during the course of his employment with the Company, due to the nature of the position he occupies he will have access to confidential information of the Company concerning its executives and employees, including, but not limited to, their background, experience, education, training, capabilities, and potential. He agrees, therefore, that if his employment is terminated at any time prior to a Change in Control (a) by the Company for any reason or (b) by the Executive for any reason, he shall not, for a two-year period beginning on the Termination Date, intentionally recruit, solicit or induce any employee or employees of the Control Group to terminate their employment with, or otherwise cease their relationship with, the former employing members of the Control Group where such employee or employees do in fact so terminate their employment.

(c) The Executive shall not at any time during the term of this Agreement, or thereafter, communicate or disclose to any unauthorized person, or use for the Executive's own account, without the prior written consent of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, nonpublic information of any kind concerning the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, including, but not limited to, nonpublic information concerning finances, financial plans, accounting methods, strategic plans, operations, personnel, organizational structure, methods of distribution, suppliers, customers, client relationships, marketing strategies, real estate strategies or the like. In the event of the termination of Executive's employment, Executive shall, on or before the Termination Date, return all Confidential Information in his possession, in whatever form, to the Company. It is understood, however, that the obligations set forth in this paragraph shall not apply to the extent that the aforesaid matters (a) are disclosed in circumstances in which the Executive is legally required to do so or (b) become generally known to and available for use by the public other than by the Executive's wrongful act or omission.

(d) The Executive agrees that any breach by him of the terms of Section 9 would result in irreparable injury and damage to the Company for which the Company would have no adequate remedy at law; the Executive therefore agrees that in the event of a breach or threatened breach by the Executive of the provisions of Section 9, the Company shall be entitled to an immediate injunction and restraining order to prevent such breach or threatened breach or continued breach by the Executive, including any and all persons and entities acting for or with the Executive, without having to prove damages, in addition to any other remedies to which the Company may be entitled at law or in equity. The terms of this paragraph shall not prevent the Company from pursuing any other available remedies for any breach or threatened breach hereof, including but not limited to the recovery of damages from the Executive. The Executive and the Company further agree that the provisions of the covenant not to compete are reasonable and that the Company would not have entered into this Agreement but for the inclusion of such covenant herein. If any provision of the covenants set forth in Section 9 is found by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable because it extends for too long a period of time or over too great a range of activities or in too broad a geographic area, it shall be interpreted to extend over the maximum period of time, range of activities or geographic area as to which it may be enforceable.

(e) The provisions of Section 9 shall survive any termination of this Agreement and the existence of any claim or cause of action by the Executive against the Control Group, whether predicated on this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of the covenants and agreements of Section 9.

10. No Duty to Mitigate/Set-off. The Company agrees that if the Executive's employment with the Control Group is terminated during the term of this Agreement, the Executive shall not be required to seek other employment or to attempt in any way to reduce any amounts payable to the Executive by the Company pursuant to this Agreement. Further, the amount of the Severance Benefit provided for in this Agreement shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by the Executive or benefit provided to the Executive as the result of employment by another employer or otherwise. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Company's obligations to make the payments provided for in this Agreement and otherwise to perform its obligations hereunder shall not be affected by any circumstances, including without limitation, any set-off, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other right which the Company may have against the Executive. The Executive shall retain any and all rights under all pension plans, welfare plans, equity plans and other plans, including other severance plans, under which the Executive would otherwise be entitled to benefits.

11. Withholding. The Company shall have the right to make such provisions as it deems necessary or appropriate to satisfy any obligations it may have to withhold federal, state, or local income or other taxes incurred by reason of payments pursuant to this Agreement. In lieu thereof, the Company shall have the right to withhold the amount of such taxes from any other sums due or to become due from the Company or an Affiliate to the Executive upon such terms and conditions as the Committee may prescribe.

12. Release. In consideration of the Executive's entitlement hereunder to a Severance Benefit which exceeds the severance benefit provided for under the Company's standard severance program and as a condition of receiving any Severance Benefit hereunder with regard to a Termination of Employment occurring prior to a Change in Control, the Executive shall be required to provide the Company with a release of all claims of the Executive (except with regard to claims for payment of benefits specifically payable or providable hereunder which have not been paid as of the effective date of the release, claims for vested accrued benefits or claims under COBRA) of any kind whatsoever against the Control Group, its past or present officers, directors and employees, known or unknown, as of the date of the release. The release shall be in such form as may reasonably be specified by the Company.

13. Successors; Binding Agreement. In addition to any obligations imposed by law upon any successor to the Company, the Company will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company to expressly assume and agree in writing to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform it if no such succession had taken place. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Executive's personal or legal representatives, executors, administrators, successors, heirs, distributees, devisees and legatees. If the Executive shall die while any amount would still be payable to the Executive hereunder if the Executive had continued to live, all such amounts, unless otherwise provided herein, shall be paid in accordance with the terms of this Agreement to the Executive's Beneficiary, or the executors, personal representatives or administrators of the Executive's estate.

14. Termination of Prior Agreement. The Senior Executive Employment Agreement entered into between the Company and the Executive dated December 12, 2008 is hereby terminated without any further obligation of the parties thereto.

15. Miscellaneous. No provisions of this Agreement may be modified, waived or discharged unless such waiver, modification or discharge is agreed to in writing and signed by the Executive and such officer as may be specifically designated by the Company. No waiver by either party hereto at any time of any breach by the other party hereto of, or compliance with, any condition or provision shall be deemed a waiver of similar or dissimilar provisions or conditions at the same or at any prior or subsequent time. This Agreement represents the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. No agreements or representations, oral or otherwise, express or implied, with respect to the subject matter hereof have been made by either party which are not expressly set forth in this Agreement, and to the extent any such agreements or representations may have been made, they are terminated upon the effectiveness of this agreement. All references to sections of the Code or any other law shall be deemed also to refer to any successor provisions to such sections and laws.

16. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.

17. Severability. If any provisions of this Agreement shall be declared to be invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the remaining provisions hereof which shall remain in full force and effect.

18. Arbitration. Any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement or the breach thereof, other than injunctive relief pursuant to Section 9, shall be settled by arbitration, conducted before a panel of three arbitrators in New York, New York, or in such other city in which the Executive is then located, in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect. The determination of the arbitrators, which shall be based upon a de novo interpretation of this Agreement, shall be final and binding and judgment may be entered on the arbitrators' award in any court having jurisdiction. The costs assessed by the American Arbitration Association for arbitration shall be borne by the Company.

19. Notice. Any notice to either party hereunder shall be in writing, and shall be deemed to be sufficiently given to or served on such party, for all purposes, if the same shall be given personally delivered to such party, or sent to such party by registered mail, postage prepaid, in the case of Executive, at his residence address as shown in the records of the Company, and in the case of the Company, to the General Counsel, Foot Locker, Inc., 112 West 34 Street, New York, NY 10120. Either party may change the address to which notices are to be sent to such party hereunder by written notice of such new address given to the other party hereto. Notices shall be deemed given when received if delivered personally or three days after mailing if mailed as aforesaid.

20. Section 409A. This Agreement is intended to comply with, or be exempt from, Section 409A and all provisions hereof shall be construed in a manner to so comply. With regard to any provision herein that provides for reimbursement of costs and expenses or in-kind benefits, except as permitted by Section 409A, (i) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, (ii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement, or in-kind benefits, provided during any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement, or in-kind benefits to be provided, in any other taxable year and (iii) such payments shall be made on or before the last day of the Executive's taxable year following the taxable year in which the expense was incurred. The parties further agree that there is no guarantee as to the tax consequences of payments provided for hereunder.

21. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation, construction, enforcement and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York without regard to its conflicts of laws principles. For purposes of Section 9, the Executive consents to the jurisdiction of state and federal courts in New York County.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this Agreement to be duly executed and the Executive's hand has hereunto been set as of the date first set forth above.
